

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to heartily recommend Cherie Adams to minister at your church in testimony and song. I am the pastor of Vintage Park Community Church in Sacramento, California; and had Cherie for a morning worship service. I heard her incredible voice when she was singing with Avalon and sought her out when I discovered that she was going on her own.

She was a blessing to our entire congregation and many of my folks related to her personal struggles and blessings. The Lord has truly blessed her with an amazing talent and heart for ministry. I also realized how flexible she was when she came to minister to us. She truly has a servant's heart.

When I first contacted her I didn't know if she would come to a small church. We are a church that runs 150 and on a tight budget, but she told me that the size of the church didn't matter only the fact of ministering to the needs of the people.

If you would truly like a blessing, I urged you to invite her to your church and I know the Lord will bless you richly.

Sincerely,
Dr. Ron Mahood
